

Dear CTA Member,

Registration for the 2023 CTA Special Education Conference is NOW OPEN!

We encourage you to join the Special Education Conference at the Hyatt Regency Orange County on October 6 - 8, 2023. This conference will sell out so be sure to register early.

This conference covers a wide variety of topics of interest to the classroom educator and resource professional. Sessions are peer-led to ensure you are learning from experienced educators while exchanging perspectives and networking with colleagues.

Below is a sample of the more than 60 workshops offered at this important conference:

- Understanding Both Sides of an IEP
- Bridging the Gap Between Special Education and General Education
- Special Education Rights and Remedies
- Student Focused Transition Plans
- Bargaining Special Education

Join us for a robust program that dives into not only classroom pedagogy, but specific strategies for collaboration, communication, and successful outcomes.
